THE PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace,
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy;

O Divine Master,

grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

READING

WE WILL REMEMBER HER

When we are weary and in need of strength,
When we are lost and sick at heart,
We remember her.

When we have a joy we crave to share
When we have decisions that are difficult to make
When we have achievements that are based on hers
We remember her.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter
At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
We remember her.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer
At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
We remember her.

At the rising of the sun and at its setting,
We remember her.

As long as we live, she too will live
For she is now a part of us,
As we remember her.

QUIET REFLECTION

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
